

Our camp offers archery, swordsmanship, medieval age medicine, How to play the lute, and at the end of the week our young knights can joust, try to defeat the dragon, or pull a sword from a piece of stone.

Have you ever wondered how people ever lived in the medieval ages? Well nows you chance! Our summer camp teaches kids how people in the medieval ages lived and survived.

MEDIEVAL CAMP

Where the past come alive!

Hear ye Hear ye Medieval camp is now open!

At our camp at the end of the week you can joust on a real horse heading towards another person. So try not to get hurt. Then if you don't like that you could help defeat the dragon. Watch out though because this dragon is very tough. But if those don't fit your style try to pull the sword from the stone. If you do you become king.

Our camp has four star rooms and bathrooms. Your children will be sleeping in a nice and warm cabin for the week.

Our first activity is archery. Your children can learn to fend off dragons with their archery skills. Our instructors are experienced in archery. So when your child gets home they may be able to shoot an apple off your head.

Our other activity is swordsmanship. Your children will practice with fake swords but they will get real training. Your children will practice on dummy's. Your children will also learn the weak points of a monster.

Our other activity is medieval medicine. Your children will learn to treat the bubonic plague. Your children will also learn to treat simple wounds. All this will be taught by expert E.M.P's. Also just in case a child gets hurt we will have ambulances standing by.

In our final activity your children will learn to play the lute. The lute was a musical instrument that people played in the medieval ages. Your children will be medieval rock-stars!

Our price for 7 days is $1879. Our meals though are scrumptious.

Our menu for lunch is turkey legs, chicken tenders, spaghetti, steak, french fries, pizza, ribs, swordfish, and crab.

For dinner we serve steak, ribs, Grilled scallops, a caesar salad, a beef burrito, hot dogs, spaghetti, and lobster.

Drinks include crush, lemonade iced tea, tea, sunkist, and fanta.

Our breakfast menu includes scrambled eggs, eggs, ham, bacon, Waffles, sausage, and fruit.
